SHEEP DIVISION POLICIES

1. All General and Livestock Department Rules will be enforced.
2. All rules and regulations of the respective breed and/or show association will be enforced as applicable.
3. TAMPERING WITH LIVESTOCK – Artificial coloring of any animal or any artificial means of removing or remedying physical defects of conformation in exhibition animals, such as lifting or filling under the skin, will be considered as fraud and deception. All animals giving evidence of such treatment will be barred from exhibition at the Oregon State Fair. If any animal is found by the official veterinarian to have been tampered with as previously described, it shall be disqualified from competition. All prize money that has been won at the current Oregon State Fair by the exhibitor on any animal or animals so disqualified will be forfeited. The finding of the official veterinarian as to whether or not any animal has been improperly tampered with shall be final and conclusive. The Oregon State Fair will not be responsible for the consequences, direct or indirect, of any animal or exhibitor being so disqualified or debarred from showing.
4. Breeds that fall into the category of "All Other Breeds" and which show at least 15 animals as of 2016 from three (3) or more exhibitors will qualify to have its own show the following year.
5. Breeds failing to show a minimum of 15 animals as of 2016 from three (3) or more exhibitors will not receive premium money for the following year. Exhibitors may receive premiums by showing in the All Other Breeds class, or breed associations may choose to continue their show without premium support from Oregon State Fair.
6. Any sheep breed wishing to qualify for a "Featured Breed Show" must show a minimum of 50 head by a minimum of seven (7) exhibitors. Shows failing to meet the 50 minimum head requirement will forfeit added premium money.
7. Featured Breed Shows will be designated by the Sheep Superintendent and Animal Competitions Coordinator upon written request from the Breed Association.
8. All entries must have tattoos or ear tags in the animal's ear showing flock number as required by the sheep breed associations.
9. Only one group entry per exhibitor per class is allowed.
10. Sheep must be humanely and ethically treated at all times. There will be no muzzles allowed on any sheep. The Sheep Superintendent has the right to dismiss anyone or remove muzzles at any time.

OREGON ROMNEY BREEDERS WOOL SHOW RULES

1. Attendant will give exhibitor an entry tag for each class. Fleece must have tag filled out in order to be judged.
2. Fleece must remain on display until release time at 6 pm on Tuesday, August 30. All fleece must be removed no later than 9 pm. The Oregon State Fair will not be responsible for fleece after that time.
3. Fleece must be shorn from Romney sheep owned by the exhibitor.
4. Fleece shall not be more than 12 month's growth. Minimum fleece length is 3 inches.
5. Exhibitors are limited to winning two premiums per class.
6. Fleeces will be placed in a clear plastic bag provided by the exhibitor. No fleece will be accepted for show in a black plastic bag.
7. Showing of tipped fleece is allowed. (Tipped fleece is one that has the dirty tips removed.)
8. All judge's decisions will be final. Judge may disqualify any entry for just cause.

One of the purposes of this Romney Wool Show is to promote the Romney breed of sheep and to exhibit quality fleeces for the spinning and weaving world. Thus, the judge will be more particular in selections which are samples of this concept.

Oregon Bred Golden Fleece Award – Established in 2009 and designed to promote the importance of wool production, this award is sponsored by Sudan Farms. This award will be given to the best fleeced Ram, Ewe, Get of Sire & Oregon Bred Young Flock selected from all of the wool breeds exhibiting. The Oregon Bred Golden Fleece class will take place in each wool breed section. Each of the winners from these classes will be eligible to show for this award directly following the last wool classion. The winner of the Oregon Bred Golden Fleece Young Flock Award will be eligible to show in the Gold Bell Young Flock Award. Sudan Farms is a small family farm located in Canby Oregon.

Supreme Champion Ewe and Ram – Pendleton Blankets sponsored by the Oregon Sheep Commission will be given to the exhibitor of the Supreme Champion Ewe and Supreme Champion Ram.

Gold Bell Awards – The Sheep Breeder and Sheepman Magazine offers a Gold Bell in order to encourage larger sheep shows of better quality. This will be awarded each year at the Oregon State Fair to the Champion Young Flock and Champion Get-of-Sire winners over all breeds. The first place Young Flock and Get-of-Sire from each registered breed are eligible for these awards. (Wether Sire/Dam representatives are not eligible.)

Di Waibel Memorial Award – In memory of Di Waibel, the American Border Leicester Association sponsors a perpetual award for the Best Fleeced Get of Sire during the Golden Fleece competition. Di Waibel was a leader in the Border Leicester sheep industry who took pride in the quality of the Border Leicester breed.

LaVerne Hawkins Memorial Shepherd's Award – In memory of LaVerne Hawkins, the Oregon Purebred Sheep Breeder's Association sponsors a perpetual award in order to reinforce pride in the quality of the Open Sheep Exhibit at the Oregon State Fair. Sheep exhibits and exhibitors will be judged by a select committee of OPSBA members on the following criteria:

- Courtesy to others
- Cooperation with other exhibitors and management
- Neat appearance of attendants
- Sheep kept properly fitted
- Sheep fed and watered regularly
- Pens kept clean and dry
- Aisles kept clean and free of debris
- Feed and equipment stowed neatly
- Promptness, courtesy and cooperation in the show ring

An individual plaque will also be awarded to each recipient yearly. The awards will be presented at the conclusion of the Sheep Show following the presentation of the Gold Bells.

LAMB & GOAT SHOW

Entry fees are $30.00 for confirmation class and $10.00 for Showmanship. Late entries will be accepted at the time of weigh-in and will be charged an additional $10.00 late fee. Weigh-in will occur at the scales located in the 4-H/FFA pavilion for a 2 hour period starting at 12PM and going till 2PM. Showmanship entries may also be paid at this time for exhibitors showing in both portions of the Jackpot show. Please notify the Show Chairman by phone or email if you will need stall space in the open class barn.

A participant may show their own sheep or make arrangements to show a sheep that is already entered in the Fair. The emphasis of this contest is to promote the care and handling of sheep and the skills that are required to show them properly.

RULES AND REQUIREMENTS:

1. The show is a one day show. All exhibitors hauling in for the day of the show can enter through the gray gate on the day of the show. You are to haul out that same day unless arrangements have been made ahead of time with the Sheep Superintendent. Exhibitors will be given directions to the pen area by state fair officials.
2. There is no weight limit on lambs. Lambs will be placed in weight divisions at the committee's discretion.
3. All lambs must have proper bedding, either straw or shavings while housed at the OSF facilities.
- 4. There will be no muzzles allowed on lambs.
5. Lambs must be slick shorn no more than seven days prior to the show. Wool may be left from the hocks and knees down for breed type.
6. No artificial color on lambs.
7. A weigh-in committee will inspect all animals before entering the scale and show ring. The State Veterinarian will also be inspecting animals. Any animals that exhibit signs of a communicable disease will be unable to show in market or showmanship.
8. Lambs must be humanely and ethically treated at all times. Show coordinators have the authority to deny participation to any individual seen treating their animals in an inhumane or unethical manner. Once entry fees have been paid, they will not be returned if the participant is deemed to be exhibiting unethical behavior or animals exhibit any sign of a communicable disease.

You will be held to the same rules and regulations as exhibitors that are in the Open Show.
