GENERAL RULES

1. Oregon State Fair (OSF) competitions are open to residents of Oregon only. Entries do not need to be entered or have won at a county fair to be eligible for any competition.

2. All articles must be the handiwork of the exhibitor and not been previously exhibited at the Oregon State Fair.

3. Online entries must be submitted by the date indicated within each Department Handbook. Paper applications will not be accepted. Information must be accurate and complete. Walk-in entries may be accepted during intake days on a limited basis.

4. Entries must be delivered and removed only during the scheduled times. Any exception shall be at the discretion of OSF staff.

5. Entries will receive a claim check upon delivery. Exhibitor must present claim check or valid Oregon ID when picking up entries.

6. Some competitions require an entry fee. See specific departments for fee and processing information.

7. OSF staff or a judge may disqualify or transfer any exhibit which is not a true representation of the class in which it is entered or if rules are not followed.

8. Judging is closed to the public unless otherwise noted. Every reasonable effort is made to secure highly qualified judges with expertise in their field.

9. Entries by OSF staff and judges are prohibited in the department in which they are working. They may enter other departments.

10. Volunteers who submit entries in a department in which they are working may not be present during judging.

11. Ribbons and/or prizes will be awarded as warranted. All judges’ results are final. Results cannot be provided over the phone but will be posted online when available. (www.oregonstatefair.org)

12. Protests may be submitted to the Creative Living office accompanied by a deposit of $25 which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Protests must plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal and submitted within 24 hours of the action.

13. Ribbons and scorecards (as available) are provided with return of entries after Fair. See specific departments for return days.

14. OSF is authorized to use any and all photographs, video and or digital images related to the entry for promotional purposes.

15. Exhibitors shall indemnify OSF from and against all claims for damage to persons or property caused by them or their exhibits.

16. OSF will take reasonable precautions to ensure safety of exhibits while on the fairgrounds, but will not be responsible for loss, damage, theft or injury of any kind to exhibits or exhibitors, unless the loss or damage is due to the negligence of OSF staff and volunteers.

17. Exhibitors found in violation of rules, or to be in practices unethical or adverse to OSF, shall be penalized by forfeiture of awards and/or privileges, and removed from the exhibit.

18. Items not picked up by final return days of each department are forfeited by exhibitor.

The Oregon State Fair reserves the final and absolute right to interpret any and all terms, conditions, rules and regulations contained in any and all parts of Department Handbooks and to settle and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incidental to the Oregon State Fair. OSF further reserves the right to determine unforeseen matters not covered by General or Competition Rules, and to withdraw award offerings in all Competitions should any emergency exist and circumstances demand.
COMPETITION RULES

1. All Oregon State Fair General Rules apply. Your submission indicates you have read and agree to abide by the General Rules and the Competition Rules.

2. Only non-professionals may enter Baked Food. A non-professional is defined as a person who has not received monetary compensation for teaching cooking/baking/decorating classes; has never received monetary compensation for any type of breads, cakes, confections, cookies, pies, pastries or other baked goods included in this department.

3. No entry fee required. Each adult exhibitor is limited to one entry per class. Juniors and Teens may enter up to two entries per class in Divisions 300 and 301. The same product may not be shared for entry by more than one individual. Violators will be disqualified. All exhibitors are limited to a maximum of 10 entries.

4. Entries in the Juniors Divisions are encouraged to have adult supervision while baking.

5. All entries must be made from scratch. No commercially produced flour substitutes accepted (graham crackers, vanilla wafers, etc.). No commercially produced mixes (cake, cookie, pudding, jello, frosting, icing or other mixes) will be accepted as ingredients in the product. No commercially produced pie crust, filo dough, puff pastry, rough puff pastry or flaky pastry will be accepted.

6. An accurate typed or clearly printed recipe on a 4”x6” card needs to be submitted with each entry. Please bring recipe inside a small zipper-lock plastic bag. Entries submitted without a recipe will be disqualified. Recipes will be used in aiding judging and to assure safety of product. Recipes will be discarded after Fair.

7. Please bring each entry in the appropriate container:
   a. Alternative Dietary, Bread, Cake, Cookies, Confections and Pastry entry on a heavy duty disposable paper or plastic plate or a disposable board.
   b. Pies must be baked in a disposable aluminum pie tin and delivered to the fair in the same pie tin.
   c. Each entry must be covered securely with plastic wrap, foil or a zipper-lock plastic bag.
      Uncovered entries will not be accepted.
   d. Due to amount of entries and available space, the size of plate or board should fit the size of the entry. For display purposes, all entries will be placed on a standard fair plate following judging.

8. Due to space limitations, refrigeration will only be available for cheesecakes and pastries.

9. Once entries have been accepted, judged and displayed, the display cabinets will be locked and not opened for any reason during hours of fair operation. Any corrections or repairs to entries will be done before or after fair hours.

10. All baked foods will be disposed of at the end of fair.
