GENERAL RULES

1. Oregon State Fair (OSF) competitions are open to residents of Oregon only. Entries do not need to be entered or have won at a county fair to be eligible for any competition.
2. All articles must be the handiwork of the exhibitor and not been previously exhibited at the Oregon State Fair.
3. Online entries must be submitted by the date indicated within each Department Handbook. Paper applications will not be accepted. Information must be accurate and complete. Walk-in entries may be accepted during intake days on a limited basis.
4. Entries must be delivered and removed only during the scheduled times. Any exception shall be at the discretion of OSF staff.
5. Entries will receive a claim check upon delivery. Exhibitor must present claim check or valid Oregon ID when picking up entries.
6. Some competitions require an entry fee. See specific departments for fee and processing information.
7. OSF staff or a judge may disqualify or transfer any exhibit which is not a true representation of the class in which it is entered or if rules are not followed.
8. Judging is closed to the public unless otherwise noted. Every reasonable effort is made to secure highly qualified judges with expertise in their field.
9. Entries by OSF staff and judges are prohibited in the department in which they are working. They may enter other departments.
10. Volunteers who submit entries in a department in which they are working may not be present during judging.
11. Ribbons and/or prizes will be awarded as warranted. All judges' results are final. Results cannot be provided over the phone but will be posted online when available. (www.oregonstatefair.org)
12. Protests may be submitted to the Creative Living office accompanied by a deposit of $25 which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Protests must plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal and submitted within 24 hours of the action.
13. Ribbons and scorecards (as available) are provided with return of entries after Fair. See specific departments for return days.
14. OSF is authorized to use any and all photographs, video and or digital images related to the entry for promotional purposes.
15. Exhibitors shall indemnify OSF from and against all claims for damage to persons or property caused by them or their exhibits.
16. OSF will take reasonable precautions to ensure safety of exhibits while on the fairgrounds, but will not be responsible for loss, damage, theft or injury of any kind to exhibits or exhibitors, unless the loss or damage is due to the negligence of OSF staff and volunteers.
17. Exhibitors found in violation of rules, or to be in practices unethical or adverse to OSF, shall be penalized by forfeiture of awards and/or privileges, and removed from the exhibit.
18. Items not picked up by final return days of each department are forfeited by exhibitor.

The Oregon State Fair reserves the final and absolute right to interpret any and all terms, conditions, rules and regulations contained in any and all parts of Department Handbooks and to settle and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incidental to the Oregon State Fair. OSF further reserves the right to determine unforeseen matters not covered by General or Competition Rules, and to withdraw award offerings in all Competitions should any emergency exist and circumstances demand.

EXHIBITION RULES

1. All General Rules apply. Your submission indicates you have read and agree to abide by the General Rules and the specific rules of this exhibit.
2. These exhibition rules apply to both Collectibles and Treasures Divisions, and additional rules apply under each Division.
3. Entries in this exhibit are for display only and will not be judged.
4. Entrants must register online by 10 pm Wednesday, August 17.
5. During online registration provide a brief description of your collection or treasure.
6. Each exhibitor is limited to one entry per class.
7. During online entry process, provide a brief but complete description of what your collection or treasure is.
8. Exhibits must be in a condition suitable for display, and must arrive ready for display.
9. All entries must be appropriate for all age & family friendly viewing. Offensive, objectionable, or violent content will not be accepted.
10. Collections or treasures previously exhibited at the Oregon State Fair are not eligible.
11. Items may not be removed from the Fairgrounds until the scheduled pick-up date(s). Items not picked up by September 7th will become property of the Oregon State Fair.
12. Although the utmost care will be taken, the Fair cannot be responsible for accidental loss or damage. Please use your own discretion on any item of great value. See General Rule #15.

Collectibles are items that people enjoy collecting as a hobby.

Treasures are items that have special meaning for the owner, either because they are handed down in the family, a rare find, or simply have great value to the owner.
